

Anouska Royle

Trainee Solicitor

I am a trainee solicitor currently sitting in the firm's financial services team.

Anouska joined Fox Williams as a trainee solicitor in September 2023 and is currently in her final seat in financial services. She completed her first seat in the dispute resolution team, second in the employment team and recently completed her third in corporate.

Prior to joining Fox Williams, Anouska worked as a paralegal at a London law firm, focusing primarily on litigation and employment matters. Anouska was involved in a $40 million arbitration in the LCIA, in a dispute over the terms of a commercial guarantee. Anouska was also a paralegal for a global intelligence and cyber security consultancy.

Anouska studied the GDL and LPC at the University of Law, achieving a distinction in both.