

Charlotte Eliasson

Senior Associate

---

I am a senior associate in Fox Williams' financial services and fintech teams.

---

Charlotte advises clients operating in the fintech and alternative finance sector at various stages of the business life cycle, from start-ups through to established financial institutions. Charlotte advises on a broad range of finance matters, including various types of debt funding lines (corporate lending, receivables financing, asset-based lending, debt financing of lending platforms) and private securitisations, acting for borrowers, originators and lenders alike, and advises fintech and financial services clients on their commercial contract arrangements globally.

Charlotte is a member of the firm's disruptive technology sector group.

Legal Expertise

---

- Banking and finance
- Corporate
- Fintech

Experience

---

- Acting for a consumer credit card fintech on a private warehouse securitisation from a UK bank.
- Acting for a consumer car loan platform on a £200m private warehouse securitisation from a UK bank.
- Acting for institutional lender, Avellinia Capital, on several revolving credit facilities to high growth lending platforms.

- Acting for several other direct lending platforms, both in the consumer and SME finance space, on funding lines and different types of debt facilities, including RCFs (revolving credit facilities), private securitisations and note issuance programmes.
- Acting for several other direct lending platforms on their customer products, including revenue-based finance, unsecured SME loans, real estate finance, development finance, BNPL loans and instalment loans.