

Dominic Moroz

Associate

I am an associate in Fox Williams' real estate team, advising a diverse range of private and corporate clients.

Dominic Moroz joined Fox Williams' real estate department as an associate in May 2022. He regularly acts for both landlords and tenants in national and London-based commercial lease transactions. He also advises corporates and high net worth individuals on wider property related matters, including development and financing considerations.

Legal Expertise

- Commercial occupiers
- Portfolio management
- Professional services
- Real estate finance
- Real estate investments & disposals
- Real estate leasing
- Residential sales & acquisitions

Experience

- Advised a high net worth individual to restructure their leasehold residential interests at a Prime Central London property
- Advised a major infrastructure provider on disposals of brownfield sites across their portfolio
- Advised a local authority on the disposal of a former entertainment venue space to be redeveloped into elite and community sports facilities

- Advised a landlord in relation to landlord and tenant matters concerning its Central London property portfolio
- Advised commercial lenders on refinancing of existing borrowing