

Hannah Elliott

Partner

---

I am a partner in Fox Williams' corporate team, advising on a range of transactional matters including UK and cross-border M&A, venture capital investments and fundraisings.

---

Hannah is a partner in Fox Williams' corporate team and has experience advising on a range of transactional matters including UK and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, venture capital investments and fundraisings. Hannah also regularly handles matters such as corporate restructurings, joint ventures and AIM IPOs, as well as general corporate advisory work for private and AIM-listed companies.

Hannah has a particular interest in the technology sector and advises a variety of clients from entrepreneurs to multinational listed companies.

Legal Expertise

---

- Corporate
- Fundraisings
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Technology
- Venture Capital

Experience

---

- Advised Volaris Group on the acquisitions of Lifecycle Software and MDS Global.
- Advised Digital Moneybox, the mobile savings and investment app, on its £14 million Series B funding round led by Eight Roads Ventures, the proprietary investment arm of Fidelity International Limited.
- Advised Allianz X, the digital investment unit of the Allianz group, on various investments including its Series B investment in SafeBoda, a major African ride hailing platform that also offers various on-demand consumer and payment services.

- Advised the shareholders and management of regulatory infrastructure provider Lawson Conner on the £48 million sale of the business to Astorg private equity.
- Advised Summerway Capital Plc, a newly established investing company, on its initial public offering on AIM and £6.1 million placing.
- Advised Directa Plus, the AIM quoted producer and supplier of graphene-based products on its placing and open offer to raise £8.24 million in connection with the acquisition of Setcar, a Romanian waste management business.
- Advised Jim Lewcock and various other founders on the sale of their shareholdings in The Specialist Works Limited by virtue of a management buyout.