

Stephanie Tsang

Senior Associate

I am a senior associate in Fox William's corporate team, advising on a range of domestic and cross-border private M&A transactions, venture capital investments and other corporate matters.

Stephanie Tsang advises on a range of corporate matters with a particular focus on private M&A and venture capital investments. Stephanie also has experience advising on general corporate advisory matters such as shareholders' agreements and reorganisations.

Prior to joining Fox Williams as an associate in May 2021, Stephanie trained and qualified at an American-headquartered international law firm based in London.

Legal Expertise

- Corporate advisory
- Fundraisings
- Mergers & acquisitions
- Reorganisations

Experience

- Advised on multiple law firm sales to a private equity buyer
- Advised QiO Technologies, an AI-powered sustainability technology start-up, on its Series B investment from US-based WAVE Equity Partners.
- Advised FinTech Kennek Solutions on a $4.5 million pre-seed funding round led by Dutch Founders Fund jointly with ffVC and Plug & Play Ventures.

- Advised Volaris Group Inc. on its purchase of Company Watch Investments Limited, a financial analytics solution provider that delivers commercial credit reference scoring in the age of big data.
- Advised Angelina Kohli on the sale of the entire issued share capital of independent financial advisory firm Libra Financial Management (UK) Ltd to Nicos Rossos Insurance Brokers Limited, one of the leading licensed insurance brokers in Cyprus.
- Advised luxury British travel platform Curated Experiences Ltd on its acquisition of the entire issued share capital of the members club Epicurean Club Limited as well as advising simultaneously on an equity investment from certain investors including Pollinate Networks Limited.
- Advised a number of start-ups on their different stages of fundraising and general corporate queries.

Memberships

- Association of Partnership Practitioners