

Victoria Allen

Management Executive

---

"I am the management executive at Fox Williams, working collaboratively with firm stakeholders to enhance operational efficiency and lead strategic project initiatives"

---

Victoria is the Management Executive at Fox Williams, where she plays a pivotal role in enhancing the firm's operational efficiency and strategic initiatives. Drawing on extensive experience gained at top-tier law firms, Victoria excels in supporting the partnership board by streamlining processes and ensuring effective communication across senior stakeholders.

In her capacity, Victoria collaborates closely with the chief operating officer to oversee the successful execution of firm-wide projects. Her leadership ensures cohesive collaboration between partners and business services, contributing to the firm's dynamic environment and success.

Victoria is also instrumental in managing the firm's global engagements, including the coordination of partner participation at the International Bar Association (IBA) conference, showcasing her dedication to reinforcing Fox Williams' international presence and influence.